

Transported to the 12th dimension

She found herself falling. Back on land Ivy and Sam were diving in. Through the torrential rain, they swam to Maria, who was being dragged down by her clothes, before pulling her up to the sunlight streaming down. They were in a well. The pair of girls introduced themselves as Zoe and Chloe they took them to their village. Telling them they were trapped in another dimension and how they and Chloe had powers.

Soon after their warm welcome Zoe spoke to them about Crowboss, who was in battle for the crown. Once the children were asleep, Sam stood. He was expecting something, it came. Within minutes, swords were drawn it seemed like days but they left stealing zoe.

As they prepared for battle, Ivy, who had the power of war, was busy shouting orders. Soon, they were battling Crowboss's army of crows. After many deaths they penetrated Crowboss's castle. Through corridors into bedrooms, up to top turret where Crowboss lay in wait. As only Ivy and Maria were there at Crowboss tacked, stabbing Ivy who lay sprawled over the floor. Maria her best friend was unmerciful throwing sparks of electricity. Crowboss fought viciously to but Maria was stronger, as she wasn't in for herself. Meanwhile Chloe and Sam had been attracted by Ivy and entered. As the sun came up, Crowboss was destroyed. Zoe was free.

Honour